FUNERAL OF GEN. PAYNE.

Interment Tomorrow at Warrenton, Va.—Black Horse Troop as Escort.

The death of Gen. William Henry Payne, which was announced in The Star of yesterday, has caused a general expression of regret from the old soldiers of the confederacy who reside in or near Washington, most of whom knew Gen. Payne either personally or by reputation. Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, his old commander in the Army of Northern Virginia, was asked to call to call at the late home of the deceased and express his regrets. Senator Daniel, who served under Gen. Payne, was also a caller. Both of these men, who have achieved distinction in the service of the confederacy, were regarded as one of the best soldiers of the confederacy and one of the best cavalry officers in the country. The famous Black Horse Troop, of which Gen. Payne was the organizer and first commander, was regarded as one of the best organizations in either army during the civil war.

Funeral services will be held at Warrenton, Va. The remains will be conveyed to Warrenton tomorrow morning at 10:15 o'clock, and the services will be conducted by Rev. J. William Rev. Jones, chaplain general of the United Confederate Veterans. At Warrenton the remains will be met by the survivors of the old Black Horse Troop, and the remains will be conveyed to the cemetery, where the interment will take place. It is also probable that representatives of the confederate veteran organizations of Richmond will attend the funeral services.

The members of the Confederate Veterans' Association of Washington have been requested to assemble at the 6th street church tomorrow morning at a mark of respect to their deceased comrade. Those who can arrange to leave the city will accompany the remains to Warrenton, Va. The honorary pallbearers, who will accompany the remains from this city, will be: Gen. Fitzhugh Lee, U. S. A., retired; Senator John W. Daniel, Gen. L. L. Long, Col. Thomas Carter, Col. Henderson, Mr. Leigh Robinson, Maj. Robert Hunter, Dr. C. C. Gordon, Col. Thomas Smith, Maj. H. H. Hodge, Judge George C. Christian and Col. Conally Treg.

A pleasant party was given by Mr. John A. Bailey on the occasion of his birthday, Monday evening, March 28, at his residence, 60 T street northwest.

A progressive game of euchre was played, followed by vocal and instrumental music. Miss May Daley played several selections. An elaborate supper closed the evening's entertainment. The table was artistically decorated with floral, American Beauties and carnations.

The host's mother, Mrs. John C. Daley, was assisted by her daughter, Miss May Daley, and Miss Mamie Harrell.

Miss Virginia A. Wright entertained her friends on the occasion of her birthday, Monday evening, March 28, at the residence of her sister. Those present were Miss Lillie B. Wright, Mr. Ernest E. Kennard, Mr. Zella Thacker, Miss May Daley, Miss Mary E. Stewart, Mr. Turner A. Cox, Mr. Clinton Woodcock, Miss Mary Creevy, Mr. Arthur Callahan, Miss Warren Creevy, Mr. Edwin B. Harris, Mr. R. Harris, Mr. Little, Mr. Norman Wright, Miss Louise Haynes, Mr. Zolzie Wright, Miss Mamie Warden, Mr. Everett Wright, Miss Fitzhugh, Mr. Elmer Wright and others.
